HOT OFF THE WIRE

iLead

"iLead through inspiration. It is our duty to inspire each student beyond his or her highest potential, and to provide schools that are centers of hope, motivation and promise."

— Anna L. Rodriguez
Administrative Director
Education Transformation Office
Division of Academic Support

BODY & MIND

What's stopping you from being more physically active?

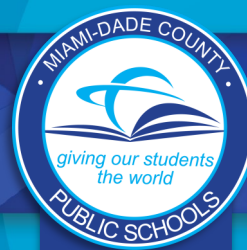

Pain? Physical activity shouldn't be painful. Check your technique, talk with your provider or find something less strenuous. Bicycling, swimming and walking are low impact activities that may be easier on your body.

The first day of school is Thursday, August 14. Welcome back!

ABOVE & BEYOND

Got a teammate who deserves a shout-out? We want to hear about them! Our school district's employee newsletter is looking for employees to feature, and we need your help. Nominate a colleague who goes above and beyond, is a great collaborator, or simply makes the workplace a little brighter. To submit them for a chance to be in the spotlight, just fill out Form 7552 and tell us what makes them a perfect example of why Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS) is your best CHOICE.

Excellence in Production

M-DCPS' Office of Communications (OOC) has expanded its content creation across audiences and media! Did you know OOC hosts two radio shows, films employee profile videos and produces WLRN Channel 17's newest weekly program, EdVentures 305?

M-DCPS Voices, airing Fridays at 4 p.m. on WMBM 1490 AM, features host Tammy Reed, OOC District Director, who invites district and community guests to share opportunities and initiatives across M-DCPS. Radyo Lekòl, airing weekdays at 9 p.m. on WLRN 91.3 FM and hosted in Haitian-Creole by OOC's Haitian Affairs team Simone DeGraff, Cherol Marcelin, and Reginald Dorival, keeps Miami's Haitian-American community up to date with M-DCPS' latest news. A Day in the Life employee profile videos, posted on theHub and M-DCPS socials, highlight our school district employees' experience and dedication. EdVentures 305, OOC's newest original, airing Thursdays at 5 p.m. on WLRN Channel 17 and on YouTube @MiamiSchools, highlights the stories that make our district schools shine.

Join OOC Originals on a journey in celebrating education, innovation, and community at M-DCPS! Tune in to OOC Originals, or submit your school, program or staff member to STORIES@dadeschools.net.

Innovate for Teachers

M-DCPS is proud to partner with the Education Fund, the College Football Playoff Foundation and the Miami Host Committee to launch Miami Loves Teachers. This countywide initiative offers classroom resources, appreciation events, and year-round support to empower educators. In total, over $3 million will be invested in the work to support teachers through the Miami Loves Teachers initiative and the Extra Yard Makeovers across South Florida.

Through this program and district-led efforts, new teachers are not just welcomed—they're embraced, encouraged, and equipped to succeed.
